OAK ELIZABETHAN STYLE REFECTORY TABLE

Proudly handmade at our workshops in Suffolk, England

A massive Oak refectory table in the Elizabethan style, raised upon five gadrooned bulbous legs with Ionic capitals. The finely carved rails incorporate traditional dragon's heads and floral motifs. The heavy underframe, with channelled square section "Y" configuration, provides more legroom for persons dining at each end. The 2" thick top is made from carefully selected Oak timbers which are pegged and cleated at the ends. The table can seat 16-18 people comfortably.
